FOREWORD

THE CLASS OF NINETEEN HUNDRED FORTY-TWO presents this issue of the Gazette as a record and history of the events, happy and sorrowful, serious and comical, that have transpired in the halls of the Lock Haven High School in the past school year.

One hundred years ago, the first public school was founded in this city. The years have brought many changes to the world, and to our school system. We have constantly been climbing higher and higher on the ladder of civilization, and we are proud to be the graduating class on this hundredth anniversary. The ideals which the founders taught in that first one-room school are as precious now as then.

In the years that lie ahead let us look back on these carefree days with reverence and joy—reverence for the guidance and instruction given us, and joy for the fellowship and good plain "fun" which we have found. May the success which this class has achieved in the last three years continue to be with its members as they depart to carve their places in the world.

CLASS

At last we are Senior High School students. It's taken us a long time to get here, but we're going to really show our "stuff" now. There weren't many definite things we did as a class this year. But we put our time to good advantage in becoming accustomed to the school and its traditions. We did, however, provide our share of students in all the activities of the school. In the next two years we promise you that we will provide plenty of action. You will see that the Class of '44 is one of the best.

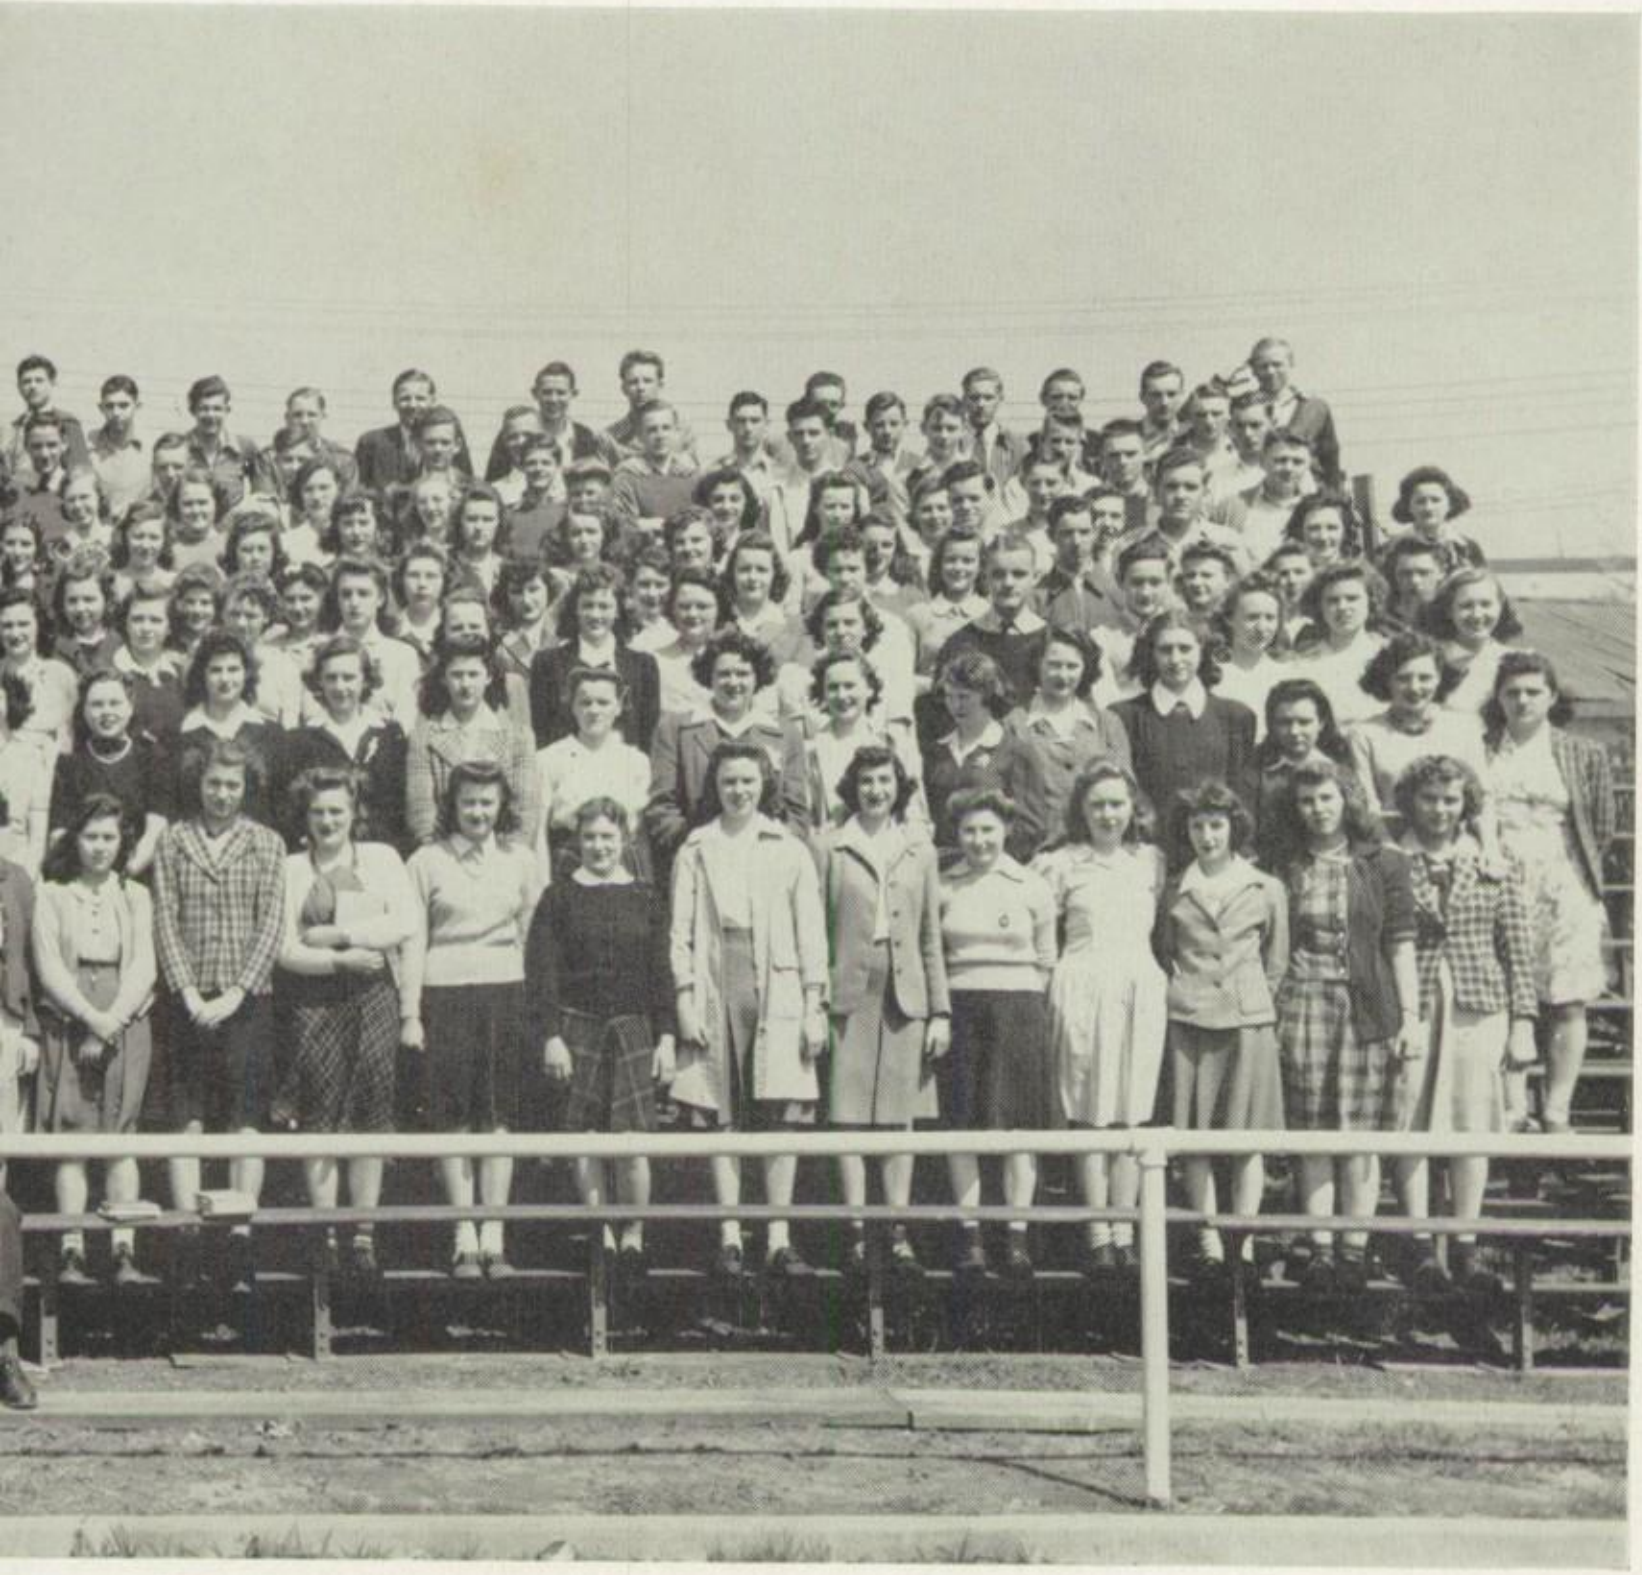
JUNIOR

OFFICERS

President	Joe Nevins
Vice President	Lester Diehl
Secretary	Ruth White
Treasurer	David Torsell

At last we are Upper-classmen, although we don't feel any different. Our ranks were swelled by the influx of students from Beech Creek and Flemington, and they soon made themselves felt around school. We contributed our share of athletes to this year's outstanding teams, and many an opponent wished that we hadn't.

CLASS



After the highly successful Sophomore Hop we held last year, the Junior Prom of this year was what might be called a "crowning achievement." Many were the praises we received after the night of May twenty-second. With two years experience in the halls of L. H. H. S. we looked forward eagerly to our Senior year.

SENIOR CLASS

OFFICERS

President	Bill North
Vice President	Kitty Thompson
Secretary	Jane Gibb
Treasurer	Phyllis Passell

Now we are Seniors! What a grand feeling that gave us as we returned to school after vacation. We felt we were not common seniors—we were different. That first year when we were the greenest of Sophomores we let it be known that we were in school. In every all-school activity we were present and actively participating. The climax of that year, for us, was the traditional "Soph Hop." Never was such a party given by a bunch of "greenies."

But the following year produced the biggest change. As Juniors we began to show some signs of growing up. We still had our fun, in school and out, but somehow we were a little more serious in it. We provided much of the material for Lock Haven's first Championship Football Team in recent years, and our participants in varsity athletics made a place for themselves that was indeed envious. Green Stockings proved to be the most successful Junior Class play in the memory of Mr. Lloyd, and the Junior Prom gave us a chance to put on the "dog" and show the Seniors that they weren't the only ones that could be "formal." More fun, and we didn't "get back until morning."

At last the long awaited (?) event. September 3, and we're the "sophisticated Seniors." It's the thrill that comes once in a lifetime and boy, how we did take advantage of it! We set out to show everyone, in school and out that the class of "42" was really something. Did we do it? All one has to do is to look at the records of the past year, and he will find that in every field of activity, our class has distinguished itself. With sophistication, however, we did not lose all our love of a carefree good time. The events which have transpired this past year disclose that, and while the listing of them would not be fitting here, they are such that we will never forget them. In March we presented The Late Christopher Bean, which turned out to be the most successful class play in years, both financially and theatrically. On June fifth the long awaited social event of our lives came upon us, and as we threw all our cares away for one evening, we realized that the happiest years of our life were almost gone. Hail to the "Class of '42." The finest ever!

LAST WILL AND TESTAMENT

We, the eminent upperclassmen of the year One Thousand Nine Hundred Forty Two, having been duly certified of most sound mind, erratic memory, and realizing the brevity of life, do submissively publish and confidently avow this, our Last Will and Testament, hereby revoking all other declarations made by us at any previous date.

FIRST: We petition the remnants of the student body to cremate our residue in a bonfire built on the memorable Hanson Field, and our ashes to be strewn upon the surface of this piece of land to stimulate loyalty to the Alma Mater.

SECOND: In order that we may not be forgotten we make the following bequests.

ITEM: To the Faculty, and all other worthies we extend:

Our undying gratitude for their helpful guidance during the last three years, the knowledge of a deed well done and the promise of a reward in the great hereafter.

ITEM: To the Juniors, we leave:

Our dignity, those rosy illusions called Senior Privileges, and our front seats in Chapel.

ITEM: To the Sophomores:

The consolation that half their time is over—the easiest half.

ITEM: Before we pass on we wish to make the following personal bequests:

1. Leslie Clausen's height to Bobby Williams.
2. Rosemary McNerny's line to anyone that needs it.
3. "Red" Wadsworth's art of taking care of Sophomores to "Dick" Callahan.
4. To George Nyce we leave Fred Deitz's eloquent gift of self expression and his love for himself.
5. We leave Mona Shoenfelt's unlimited experiences to Peggy Swope.
6. Peggy Bowe's curls to the mercy of the March winds.

LAST WILL AND TESTAMENT

7. Bill Bagley shall inherit Earl Lentz's physique.
8. "Gee" Del Grippo's practical jokes to "Art" Hurwitz.
9. We leave Sammy Shoemaker's razor blade to Don Rippey. Sam doesn't use it.
10. Irene Grenoble's convulsive sounds to Nancy Welliver.
11. To the Bobcat Staff we leave a bottle of wall cleaner.
12. Carrie Diack shall inherit Anna Mae Baird's rosy personality.
13. We leave one of William Russell, Punk, Monk, Harry Eiseman's nicknames to Helen Pleasanton Cox.
14. Tom Heffner's wolf call to Nathan Pletcher.
15. Pete Innocent's team spirit in athletic ability to the future Football and Basketball Teams; they can't help but win with it.
16. We wish to bestow upon "Dive Bomber" Charles Glock, "Johnny" McGhee's broken field grace.
17. "Doc" Thomas's swing of the golf club to Marshall Brown.
18. June Tyson's engagement ring to Pat Bodle.
19. To the future generation of Dairy Store loafers, Max Coploff leaves his secret of getting good marks without studying.
20. To Joe Verelli shall go Don Welch's instructions on how to keep a bench warm.

Lastly, we nominate and constitute our life long Mascot, Mickey, sole executor of this, our Last Will and Testament.

In witness whereof, we have set our hands and seals this twelfth day of June in the Year of Our Lord Nineteen Hundred Forty Two.

Signed,

KITTY THOMPSON.

TO A DARK HAIRED LAD

To thee is given Courage as of old
To dare this world with colors flying high.
Proud Strength is thine to cherish as if gold.
"A life well lived!" should be thy battle cry.

Bright Honor, Truth, and Virtue in thy face
Are mingled as they were in knights of yore.
A glory and a tribute to thy race,——
In human hearts thy name lives ever more.

All faithful to perform a promised deed;
Stern Justice, guiding light, rules all thy ways.
In kindness thou will help another's need;
Thy works will live to show thee endless praise.

No earthly lot was thine save victory;
Can you receive defeat and still be free?

QUERY

When I am old and full of years,
And children come to me in tears,
Asking for my verdict wise,
To whom shall I then raise my eyes?

When my life draws near its Fall,
And I am asked to answer all,
Will I have learned from this world's fray
Enough to help youth on its way?

Lois McCool

THAT NIGHT

The moonlight softly sifted through the trees;
The air a melancholy stillness claimed;
The wind so gently whispered to the leaves;
And nature wrapped in all her glory reigned.

The dusky clouds like smoke, were riding high;
A tiny brooklet hummed o'er every stone;
The blinking stars sent codes across the sky,
And Earth succumbed to peace, to peace alone.

Mona Shoenfelt.

TRIBUTE

Gentle in words,
Kind in her deeds,
She has no thought
But others' needs.

Teaching the child,
Guiding the youth,
She helps them all
To search for Truth.

Lighting the path
Others have trod,
Helping the world,
She has found God.

SONNET: OUR PROMISE

This world of ours, endangered, lies
In a bed of flaming coals;
O'er our heads a war cloud rolls,
And mists of hate about us rise;
Iron birds of death soar through the skies;
For each marked one the death fell tolls
And frees out of many wretched souls,
One, whose voice once whispered sighs
Of Love and Peace, and Faith and Rights,
Their fervent prayers shall not be lost!
For each brave one will attain his dream.
Then through the dark and murky night
Shall come the dawn! What matter cost?
The world shall once more lie serene.

Mona Shoenfelt.

TAKING STOCK

The new years starts, and I go forth
To conquer in the fray.
But toward the end my footsteps lag;
I dread each passing day.
My task to do no longer loved,
My work no longer done,
Idle I sit and curse my fate
From dawn to setting sun.
My weakness lies in laziness;
I want no job to do;
I make no effort to succeed,
Just count on "getting through."
But now I take my faults in hand,
And hold them to the light.
With firm resolve I take this vow:
"Go forth from here and Fight."

Lois McCool

MY HOMEWARD WAY

My work is done, my cares are gone, I'm free once more,
And I alone shall trod the path my homeward way.
The sky grows dark, the snow is deep, the wind it tore,
And now a blizzard thought the night began its play.

It numbed my body, shut my eyes, and hid the path,
For, as I go, alas I know not where to stray,
And at this time I wonder what powers God hath,
But on I go; I shall not fail to seek the way.

Then from afar I saw a light—it was my home!
I fell upon my bed of snow and there I lay,
But I was in eternal bliss, I'd reached my home!
It was then I knew that I should ne'er again see day.

RAIN

The clouds had gathered in the sky
And caused the mighty sun to die.
Thunder roared and lightning slashed
And waves against the vessels lashed.
The Heavens opened—down it came,
The wet, cold, splashing, endless rain

LOIS MCCLOSKEY

THE TIE

The team came marching on the field,
The band began to play,
The crowd stood up to cheer them on,
While the coach stood to pray.

The contest did go three quarters,
The score was naught and naught,
Purple fans began to worry,
Such luck the rain had brought.

Then Mace, Shoemaker and McGhee,
Carried the ball to the three,
Lock Haven fans cheered at last,
While Milton rooters stood agast.

But rain and mud, their toll did take,
And the Milton line would not break,
So Bobcat fans did rave and cry,
For all they got was a measley tie.

MAX COPLOFF

Revelations on why I shouldn't write poetry, with apologies to Joyce Kilmer and Ogden Nash.

My mind is much to full of bliss,
To settle down to this——
To sit and sweat and fuss and curse,
Just to write a simple verse;
Such foolish rhymes come from me;
Just demi-gods write poetry!

FRED DIETZ

DUTY

Let me but do my duty day by day,
When vagrant dreams urge me to go astray.
In school, at home, wher'er I chance to be
At tiresome work or simply serving tea.
Give me the power and the right to say,
"I did my best, it was the only way."
Now is the time to have my little fun,
Since all my duties for the day are done.

This is the only way one can succeed,
And reach the goals which are to be obtained.
This is the way much happiness is gained,
If duties urgent calling you but heed.
It matters not how great the idle dream,
'Tis duty done that through our life will gleam.

LAURETTA HULSIZER

THE WORLD TODAY

We hear to-day of strife and war,
Peace and unity are no more.
Where a quiet people once did reign,
Are now astray by a destorted brain.

We thought civilization was now progressed,
To a point where there would be no need for war and death.
But all our ideals were shattered one day,
With greed and desire the world did sway.

We do not know when all this will end.
There must be another power that will defend,
The innocence and goodness that dictators have sought to bend.

ANNIE SMITH

A FRIGHTENING EXPERIENCE

The day was dark and dreary and I wasn't very cheery,
As I so very sadly started on my way.
You're going to fail, you're going to fail;
My footsteps seemed to say.

I couldn't fail, no not today,
It just couldn't be that way.
My thoughts were in such a terrible muddle.
I dropped my books in a big mud puddle.

Gathering them up I started again,
Knowing that I could no honors win,
It was then that I shook more and more.
I knew I would fail, oh I was sure.

And there on the threshold I stood awhile,
On my face was a hysterical smile.
Oh of course, I would have to go in,
But now I was sure that I could not win.

And now my dear friends,
Surely you must have guessed the rest.
Yes you are quite right.
I was going to take my mid-year test.

GRACE POWELL

LIFE

Would we enjoy the sunshine without the rain?
Would we value our health, if we never had pain?
Would the flowers be as lovely without any tares?
Would we appreciate pleasure without any cares?
Without the bitter there would be no sweet;
We could not call it life without some defeat.
While rush and turmoil all round us is rife,
We seek peace and quiet amid war and strife.
When we're pricked by a thorn, we have only to recall,
What a wonderful world it is, after all!

BETTY J. GUMMO

FOOTBALL HISTORY

The stadium's quiet, gone is the noise,
Gone are the players and the rest of the boys,
Gone are the wounds and cuts and sores,
All is gone, except the scores.

We'll remember the scores of the game that day
Cause they all came about in a funny way
There were fumbles and punts and passes galore.
All these helped to make up the score.

First there was a punt long and wide,
The ball rolled far, down our side,
Then the enemy started to lunge.
Toward our goal they were to plunge.

They plunged and plunged to our very goal,
To watch them go would wrend one's soul.
Then came a fumble that offered defeat
It brought our rooters right to their feet.

Now we had the ball with our backs to the wall.
Would we move on or would we stall?
We needed this game to win the flag,
So we wouldn't loaf or linger or lag.

So our boys they started to march away,
Hoping to win and remember the day.
Down and down and down they went,
Burning their energy till all was spent.

Then into the huddle they went to think
To snatch victory, from the very brink
We were behind didn't you know,
They had six, we, zero.

Then out of the huddle and up to the line
All they came one at a time,
Then the ball came back, to the man who was there
And each did his part and all with care.

The ball was thrown with the greatest of ease
And our man caught it, right at his knees.
Then our boy, ran and ran very fast
All of our enemy he did pass.

And over the goal, he went to score
Then out of the stadium broke forth a roar.
Would we make the point to give us the game?
Would we have victory? Would we have fame?

Now our fellows, were ready to try
For the extra point, to do or die.
Then came the kick and the ball did fly
High over the posts unto the sky.

The game was over and we had won
And every parent was proud of his son,
Then down to the gate we all went away,
All but the score; that would stay.

Again I repeat and again I say
Peace and quiet on the field hold sway,
And now the game is gone in the past
But yet I repeat the score will last.

BEVERLY GOWER

YOUR OWN STORY

Has anybody told you that every thought you think
Makes lines like the lines you write with pen and ink?
That thoughts of anger or hate will spoil the pleasantest face.
By making ugly lines which nothing can erase?

But thoughts of love and kindness and cheer
Make very pretty lines, all fine and clear;
Then by and by your face becomes an open story book
Which every one can see and read each time they chance to look.

So if you want your face to tell a story sweet and fair,
You must see that only good thoughts do any writing there.

HELEN BARNHART

LATE AGAIN

I run breathlessly,
I stop at the door hesitatingly,
I open the door slightly,
I look in the door carefully,
I enter the room apologetically,
I walk to my seat stumblingly,
I open my book fumblingly,
The teacher storms, "You're late."

HAROLD RUHL

OUR ALMA MATER

We remember, as children, hearing the words Alma Mater. They were no more than words. They could have been one word or four. Later in our childhood the term applied vaguely to football. Still later it seemed to be merely a nick-name for the colleges of various big brothers in our neighborhoods. Gradually as we grew older, we gained a clearer recollection of their true meaning. But to many of us, the words Alma Mater still mean nothing. If we really stop to consider them, we find that they do have a significance.

Literally, the words Alma Mater mean "fostering mother." The term was originally applied by the Romans to Ceres, the goddess of agriculture, since she seemed to them to be their fostering mother. It has been used in its present way, however, for many years.

We don't all realize it now, but in future years many of us will be able to look back to our high school years and find there the happiest memories of our lives. We will be more than grateful for these four happy years, for friendships treasured, refound and rediscovered, for its discipline and sound training.

Just as the literal meaning, fostering mother was used by the Romans, it may be considered by us also, since it has been as a maternal guide through our high school years.

ELEANOR TOBIAS

WONDERING

The day was dark and dreary,
And we were all a little weary
As we wondered who would win the game.

The cheerleaders were all yelling,
The "Hot Dogs," sure were selling,
As we sat there wondering who would win the game.

The band was there with colors bright
The team, they fought with all their might,
As we sat rooting for them to win the game.

We didn't need to wonder anymore,
As our gallant team ran up the score,
While we sat there winning the game.

MARY BRUNNER

MY FIRST CAR

I cranks da car
But she won't run;
This automobile
She's a sawn of a gun!
She'sa stop in the middle
Of the street upa town.
I look in the carbalata
But she'sa no drown'.
I pusha da clutch,
Shaka da wheel,
Knocka da brake,
Da horn I feel,
I look in da tank,
Wot I see?—Yas!
Sawn of a gun!
She'sa outa da gas.

HAROLD FROMM

DRIVING

"Driving is easy," veterans shout.
"Take off the brake, let out the clutch,
Look in the mirror, then start out
Feed it some gas, but not too much."

The Car jumped? Well, don't be forlorn.
That 'practice makes perfect' we know is true,
Just don't give up, if you can still blow the horn.
Driving may not come easily to you.

One day, you think that you can drive,
Well, well enough to pass a test.
You are nervous, but friends tell you
"Just be calm, the car'll do the rest."

A message now to you I send
No matter where you are, my friend.
Remember this line when you drive
'OH, but it's great to be alive.'

JANE BAGLEY

A PICTURE

It is five o'clock in the morning. The soft sweet air is blowing lightly; just enough to bring forth a beautiful murmuring song. Every thing is quiet except for the brook, located in back of a small cottage that stands all alone in the mountains. A winding path leads from the cottage to the bank of the brook, with steps leading down to the water. The trees of many brilliant colors are bending over the brook as if to see their own beautiful faces in the water. The birds come nearer and in a harmonizing way blast forth their happy good-morning to their friends. The sun is peeping its golden yellow cheeks between the trees and makes a path through the woods. It makes the leaves sparkle and the water glisten with dignity. The squirrels and chipmunks play hide-and-seek, jumping and climbing from tree to tree, causing the branches to sway back and forth.

At last a lad and a dog come walking up the path, around the cottage and down the steps to the brook. The boy takes a pole and puts a baited line on it. He throws it in the water and sits very still. His dog finds a shady spot and lies down also. For several minutes not a sound is heard except for the songs of the woods and the rambling on of the brook.

MIRIAM BOWERS

TRUE VERSE WITH APOLOGIES

I wanted to travel The Royal Road to Romance so Up From Slavery. I Married Adventure and Was Gone With the Wind Hoping for New Worlds to Conquer.

I roamed The Good Earth and found All This and Heaven Too. I jumped into My Seven League Boots, and took The Flying Carpet to pass beyond the Lost Horizon. I saw Europe In the Spring, and landed Inside Asia where I witnessed Blood, Sweat, and Tears. From there I pushed into China to spend that Moment in Peking. Becoming known as The Exile I begged for East Wind, West Wind to carry me to The Land of The Free.

Too soon had I learned You Can't Do Business With Hitler, and although The Stars Look Down in Wales, The Citadel will always be for me, The U. S. A., The Tree of Liberty. And at long last I knew How Green Was My Valley. The Sun Was My Undoing but Kings Row and Main Street beckoned me. So Farewell to Arms and Vanity Fair; I'd made my Escape, but from Pride and Prejudice I came home again Smiling Through and found my lawn in front of my house As Long as the Grass Shall Grow.

SCHOOL NOTES

SEPTEMBER

3—Well we're all together again after a grand vacation, but we're Seniors this time. Seems good to be able to see all the kids again and to be able to walk down the aisle and sit in the middle section in chapel.

4—Back in the groove again with full length periods today.

8—Those locker keys which are so easily lost were obtained today, with a small deposit leaving holes in many of our pockets.

10—One full week of school has passed. That leaves only 185 more days.

20—We are the victors of our opening football game defeating Renovo by the wide margin of 58-0.

27—This year we find a new team on our schedule, Osceola Mills. Another triumph—46-6.

OCTOBER

4—Steelton, who was originally scheduled for today's football game, was canceled. As a result we won an easy victory over Bellewood-Antis, 43-0.

5—A month of school has passed and by this time we should be used to studying (???).

10—Our first vacation. One day off for P. S. E. A. meetings.

18—As usual it was a rainy day for the Milton game. Maybe this had something to do with the result—a 0-0 tie.

25—Back to our home field again. We met Lewistown in the most thrilling game we've seen in a long time. They were added to our list of vanquished 18-13.

27—Report cards! How do we feel—better or worse?

NOVEMBER

1—We beat South 19-6.

3—Every Senior looking his best this week to have the class pictures taken.

17—Discouraged or flattered, we got our proofs. Expecting a miracle?

21—A pep dance was held in the gym and as unusual there was quite a crowd! More fun!

26—Thanksgiving vacation!

27—The last game of the season with our Jersey Shore rivals. We're all very proud of our team for having defeated them 7-0.

DECEMBER

1—A noticeable lack of students today. This is accounted for, however, since it is the first day of deer season.

9—Our first wrestling match of the season. Unfortunately Tyrone came out on top—20-15.

16—The basketball team made a good start by beating Philipsburg 24-22.

22—The Senior Class pictures are all ready in time for Christmas presents.

30—Congratulations to Kitty Thompson who is the first career woman of our class.

JANUARY

5—Back to the same old routine after forgetting our troubles for two whole weeks.

16—Many couldn't start their cars during the sub-zero weather of this week.

SCHOOL NOTES

22—Our new debating team, which we hope will measure up to its former standards, began its chapel debates.

28—Those mid-year exams which can't be avoided rolled around again.

FEBRUARY

9—The committees have been picked and preparations for our Senior Class play are well under way.

12—We were all glad to see Lincoln's birthday come around, since it meant another vacation.

13—Today is Friday, 13th, our 13th basketball game, Coach Viechniki's 13th year, and there are 13 members on the squad. (Incidentally, we beat Bellefonte.)

16—Another vacation—Conscription Day.

17—Due to a misunderstanding of the extra periods the basketball team lost its only game in the regular season—36-35 at St. Joe.

MARCH

10—We are all very proud of our basketball team which defeated Huntingdon at State College in the first District 6 play-off.

13—The Pride and Joy of L. H. H. S. in the form of the basketball team went to Altoona and went under the iron will of pride and joy of Franklin Borough to the tune of------ Sorry to see the team lose after such a good season.

27—The Senior Class play, "The Late Christopher Bean," was a huge success. Congratulations are due to the cast for their grand performance.

29—Very surprised to find two feet of snow today after the fine spring weather we've been having.

APRIL

6—Seniors were once more reminded that two weeks remain for work (and we mean work!) on commencement themes.

8—The new air raid system was tried, but we seemed to be rather slow in responding.

10—All the Seniors are very busy these days exchanging name cards. The problem now is what to do with them.

15—Many took advantage of the first day of fishing season. One casualty—Dietz fell in!

20—Those of us who insist upon procrastination were really tired today—themes due.

27—Another Registration Day vacation.

MAY

1—The State Scholarship Examinations were given today.

22—The day arrived for the Junior Prom, and it seemed to be a success. It seems a long year since we were the hosts.

JUNE

12—The long awaited day is here at last, although we weren't quite as happy as we thought we'd be. We've had a lot of fun and kind of hate to see it end, but here's wishing everyone the best of luck.

WHAT WE WOULD LIKE TO SEE AROUND L. H. H. S.

1. Less teachers.
2. Benches in the halls.
3. Dietz with a hair cut that doesn't look like a worn-out mop.
4. A box of cigars for G. L. C.
5. Pool tables and pin ball machines in the boys' locker room.
6. Janie Bauman without a Ford.
7. An anti-flunking rule.
8. A new book of jokes for DelGrippo.
9. Padded shelves in the Bobcat office.
10. Milk period between every class.
12. Betty Grable.
13. General volumes of that "Little Red" (widely read) Book for the Library.
14. More athletic teams like the class of "42" gave us.
15. More great captains like Innocent.
16. Victor Mature for the Senior Female Wolves.
17. Escalators.
18. Union hours.
19. Again we ask for Mr. Cummings' sky light blinds.
20. More who could appreciate Miss Dickey's jokes.
21. More ambition in next year's GAZETTE Staff.

"IT CAN'T HAPPEN HERE"

Miss Gillespie singing "Deep in the Heart of Texas" and clapping.
Red Heverley running to school. In fact, running anywhere.
Joe Hayes lawfully driving his car.
Bill North and Bill Eisemann placing in a track meet.
Ed Taylor coming to school with anyone but Isabelle.
Frank Cessena sitting through a class without asking a question.
Slenker coming to school with the same color hair twice in a row.
Grossman admitting that someone can do something almost as well as he.
Clyde Poorman getting to school in time to suit Mr. Cummings.
Irene Grenoble merely smiling.
Miss Gressor teaching a gym class.
Two senior boys singing the same song at the same time, and using the same words in chapel.
A "Bobcat" coming out on time.

"BY THEIR ACTIONS YOU SHOULD KNOW THEM"

Solid Class at 1:15 ---------- "Does anybody have their solid done?"
Mr. Hauke ---------- "That was a refreshing problem."
Mr. Hoch ---------- "A big, fast, rugged, aggressive, and smart team."
Miss Gresser ---------- "An E or G student does not have to be reminded to stop talking."
Mr. Cummings ---------- "You're late! Get a new home room."
Evelyn Erieg ---------- "I've just gotta get me a man."
One wolf to another wolf ---------- "How'd you make out last night?"
Red Wadsworth ---------- "Dad can I have the car tonight?"
Junie Helt ---------- "Did you hear the one about——?"
Gerard DelGrippo ---------- "I'll be with you till the end. This is the end."
Brooke McGhee ---------- "Just a minute. I have to talk to Watson."
Bill Eiseman ---------- "I hear you died."
Mr. Fromm ---------- "So much for that."
Mr. Davis ---------- "You can't discipline them unless you're within arm's reach."

CONGRATULATIONS

1. To Stetson for his liberal amount of appearances during chapel.
2. To the Walkers for providing all that excellent football material.
3. To Ted Helt for picking up that "Sophomore."
4. To the class of "42" for "everything."
5. To Swope and Bush for their keeping steady companionship all these years.
6. To McCool for proving that at least one girl could think, "too."
7. To "Big Joe" for his vigilance.

TIPS TO NEXT YEAR'S SENIORS

1. The auditorium, Mr. Fromm's home room and the Bobcat office are good loafing places at activity period. (P. S.) But don't get caught in the Bobcat office.
2. If you put peroxide on your hair, admit it.
3. Don't do anything that this year's Senior Class wouldn't do.
4. Never cut when Mr. Hoch is out of town.
5. Always do your homework—in P. D. class.
6. Don't come late to Mr. Cummings' room regularly.
7. Don't leave by the back doors at 3:05 or 2:10.

DO YOU REMEMBER?

2. The wolf call in "Deep in the Heart of Texas."
3. Old friend "Hypocotle?"
4. Cigarette butts in the projection booth?
5. All night poker parties?
6. The Vulchers?
7. Trips to Beech Creek?
8. The football game at Milton and the basketball game at Altoona?
9. Duck shooting?
10. Chapel singing?
11. When the team came on the field at Hazleton?
12. The day we had a hot trumpet in chapel, and Miss Gresser called for more?
13. "Oh you're so-o-o brave?"
14. The second half of the basketball game with Huntingdon?
15. Meter smacking?
16. How the car from Mackeyville can always break down coming to school in the morning?

You now have heard our gossip
But the best part you'll never know.
For the things that really made us
In print can never go.

WHO'S WHO IN "62"

Who's who in the class of '42?
Why every member including you.
Read this page line for line,
And you'll get the message of father time.
For we'll all be famous by "62,"
So now our talents let us pursue.

(The following information is gathered from the news broadcasts of Kitty Thompson and Max Coploff, outstanding news commentators of 1962.)

Good evening ladies and gentlemen. So much has happened since our last broadcast that our sponsors, Boyer, Sharp, Fultz, Hayes, and Hockenberry Inc., have given us permission to eliminate all Commercials on their SKYROCKETS, so on with the news:

ORGANIZATIONS

Much of the best part of our year has been spent in extra curricular activities. The fellowship and experience found in our Organizations will long be remembered as perhaps the best times of our lives. So it is with special attention we ask you to carefully pursue the next few pages. In them are chronicled the many happy Activity Periods, the many evenings spent after school in practice, the many good "Bull Sessions" which have been ours in this school year.

The year 1941-42 marked the third year of the life of the school paper, The Bobcat. Due to the curtailment of Hi-News, the Bobcat has become the only instrument for the distribution of news of school events. The policy of the Bobcat is threefold: first, to institute reforms by pointing them out in its editorial columns; second, to keep the school informed of school events; third, to publish gossip.

First Row, Left to Right—Dick Sweitzer, Fred Dietz, Max Coploff, Bill North, Eugene Wheeler, Lois McCool.

In 1942 the former Debating Club became the Forensic Club, that is, members were admitted who wished to compete in other speech activities as, Shakespearian Reading, Humorous, Dramatic, and Oratorical Declamation, Original Oratory and Extemporaneous Speaking. Lock Haven's unusual succcess in these contests is an indication that we should have entered them long before this.

This year the Forensic Club, with the co-operation of the Glee and Choral Clubs, presented "The Purple Whirl," a variety show, to raise money for the year's expenses. One of the largest crowds seen at the high school in many years thoroughly enjoyed the production.

Miss Sarah Beck, Forensic Club coach, with the help of the club members, organized the Model Junior Senate, held in Harrisburg on December 30, 1941. Governor James spoke to the assembled high school students. Other state congressmen were also present. Eugene Wheeler was Speaker of the Senate and Alice Patterson acted as a page. Max Coploff was a Senator while Richard Callahan was an alternate Senator.

Because the N. F. L. National Speech Tournament was canceled this year, the Forensic Club joined the Pennsylvania Music and Forensic League in order to extend its activities. Including tournaments in both leagues, the debating club participated in contests at Derry, Lewistown, State College and Hanover. In addition the club sponsored a very successful tournament in the Teachers' College in which 17 schools participated.

In the realm of the other speech events, Lock Haven won real honors. In the Pennsylvania League district contest at State College, Richard Callahan won first in Oratorical Declamation. As a result of this Richard went to Bloomsburg for the State contest. At Hanover where the N. F. L. District Tournament was held, Alice Patterson won first in Original Oratory, Peggy Swope first in Humorous Declamation, Audrey Miller first in Dramatic Declamation, and Richard Callahan in Extemporaneous Speaking.

Richard Callahan was also sent to Madison, Wisconsin, to participate in the National Forensic League Student Congress, which lasted from April 27 to May 1.

All in all Lock Haven had a very successful season in speech events, a success which certainly warrants expansion of this department in the future.

Membership roll of 27 for the Glee Club.

At Christmas time the clubs made their first appearance in chapel and sang carols. The Choral Club sang at the Presbyterian Church for the Music Club. Both the Choral and Glee Clubs with the Debating Club presented to the public "The Purple Whirl," a minstrel show, after which a party was given for the members of the three clubs. The public also enjoyed an effective Christmas Concert given by these singers.

The clubs this year, being very successful ones, have a number of prospective dates. A few of them are: Williamsport, Jersey Shore, and Renovo High Schools. Their latest appearance was at the Salona Consolidated School in their chapel.

This year's club is the best club in years, because of its large enrollment.

A number of the older members from the two clubs will make up this year's Senior Choir at the commencement exercises.

The activities of the Senior Hi-Y Club were varied and successful during the past school year. Thirteen boys and Mr. Hauke attended the Older Boys' Conference at Williamsport in December, where their basketball team won the annual tournament. An honor was bestowed upon our club with the election of Fred Nicholson as District Vice President for the coming year.

During the winter the boys enjoyed a recreational period in the gym each week, while the meetings and programs were excellent and varied. The club sponsored the annual Thanksgiving and Easter donations for the Hospital.

In the spring, we played host to the Flemington and Salona Hi-Y clubs at an informal mixer in the local "Y" rooms.

DRAMATICS CLUB

During the first semester the Dramatics Club produced three one-act plays which were given in chapel at various times. During the Christmas season these plays were produced a second time for the benefit of various organizations in the city. In the early part of the second semester the club designed and built a box set, used for the first time in March for the Senior Class Play, The Late Christopher Bean, by Sidney Howard. In April part of the group participated in the speech festival at the local Teachers College.

OUR ACHIEVEMENTS FOR THE YEAR

An American Farmer Degree at Kansas City.
A state band member at the Harrisburg Farm Show.
Over $100.00 won in prizes.
Three Keystone Degrees.
Over fifty members.
Our own radio program.
Chapter softball team.

THE BAND

The band had a very successful year. In line with civic duties the band was called upon many times to display its marching talent. Many defense meetings were considerably brightened by the presence of the band. Individaul honors were earned by many of its members, eight having participated in the Central District Orchestra at Clearfield and ten in the District Band at Blossburg. Two members went to the All State Orchestra at Reading while two others were chosen to represent our school at the All State Band at Millvale. Many of the members also participated in the All-County Band. Concerts by this group were given at Lock Haven and Renovo. In accordance with former years, the Annual Band Concert was presented. The year closed with a banquet and dance at which the Senior members were presented with keys as tokens of their services.

"THE LATE CHRISTOPHER BEAN"

The Senior Class chose for its annual play the comedy by Sidney Howard entitled "The Late Christopher Bean." Through the co-operation of the entire class with the cast and staff, the play was both a dramatic and financial success. The plot centered around a New England doctor who had treated and housed a poor painter, Chris Bean. Several years after his death, his real worth is realized, and a horde of art dealers descend upon the doctor's household causing untold troubles. At the end of the play, the Haggett's maid, Abby, turns out to be Mrs. Bean, much to the disappointment of the Haggetts.

FOOTBALL

In 1941 the Lock Haven High School football team again brought glory to the Bobcat fold. With only a few lettermen returning, the out-look was not overly bright, but Coach Davis and his able assistants developed a team which had more scoring punch than any purple outfit in recent history. The boys were known as the "Champs Without a Title," and were unbeaten in both the Susquehanna League and the Western Conference.

BASKETBALL

After many years of patient waiting the Lock Haven High basketball team captured the Central League Championship. Coming close to the top year after year, it took the Purple of "42" to turn the trick.

The all-powerful team was able to take seventeen out of nineteen contests. They lost only to Saint Joseph by a single point in two extra periods and to Franklin-Boro in the District Six final.

The first string was made up of David "Doc" Thomas, a small but fighting forward; Ralph "Sam" Shoemaker, one-handed shot maker and all-league forward, and Brooke McGhee, who was always an offensive threat. The guards were said by many to be the best pair in Central Pennsylvania. Captain Pete Innocent, an all-league guard, and Ed Mace, only junior on the first string, will be long remembered by the basketball fans of Lock Haven. Other members of the squad who were also important cogs in the championship machine are Donald Wadsworth, Dwight Helt, Harold Ruhl, Bob McCoy, Lester Diehl, William Eisemann, Joe Verelli, and Donald Welch. All but Mace, McCoy, Diehl, and Verelli have played their last for Lock Haven.

WRESTLING

With a new coach and few experienced wrestlers returning from last year, the outlook for the 1942 wrestling season was not too bright. But through hard work by all, Coach Davis developed a team that was equal to any we have had in the last few years. Since only four regulars will be lost by graduation, the prospects for next year's team are even brighter.

GOLF

The 1942 Golf Team, eager to repeat its undefeated performance of 1941, swung into full form, defeating State College 11½-3½ and Williamsport 12-3 in the first two matches of the year. Though the team lost two regulars last year, Mr. Hoch has been able to present an excellent team, built around such seasoned players as Thomas, McGhee, Welch, and Grossman. Captain Thomas placed third in the PIAA State Golf Tournament.

First Row, Left to Right—Verelli, Lentz, Orndorf, Claster, Helt.
Second Row—Bowes, Greenwood, Long, Driver, Coach Blake.

TENNIS

With all of last year's undefeated team returning, Coach Blake had a rosy prospect. In addition to Helt, Claster, Lentz, and Verelli, a good group of new material answered the call for candidates, so that for the next few years, the L. H. Courtmen should do themselves proud. Both State College and Williamsport were defeated by them in the first two matches of the season.

First Row, Left to Right—Walker, Bush, J. Fredericks, Nyce, W. Fredericks, Wadsworth.
Second Row—Eisemann, Shoemaker, North, Shaeffer, Croak, Nevins, Shea, Rich.
Absent—Bartholomew, J. Holland.

TRACK

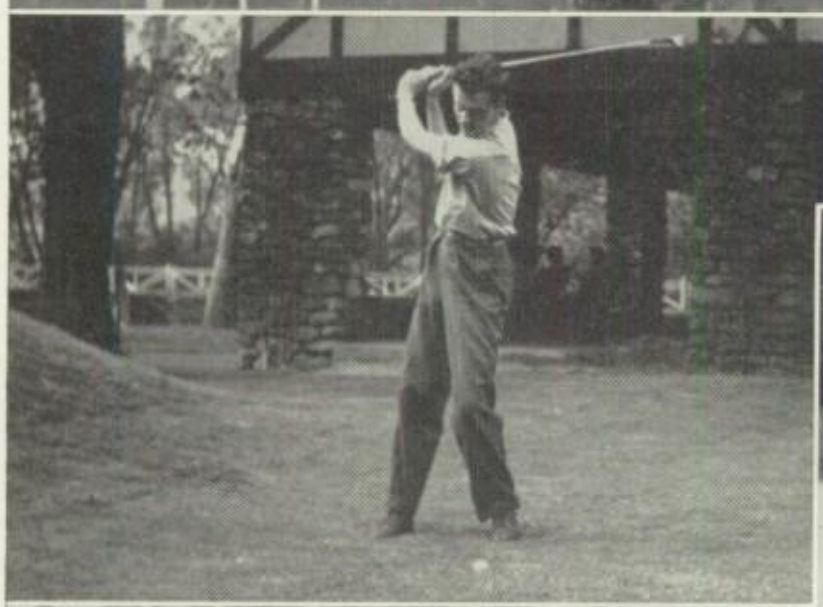
This season the track team began work under the supervision of a new coach, Mr. Davis. With only a few of last year's men returning, he faced a difficult task, but he was able to turn out a team that did an excellent job for the school. "Red" Wadsworth, Joe Nevins, and Bill Fredericks have done outstanding work this season, "Red" having set a new school record in the 440. At a triangular meet at Williamsport they placed second, and in the annual Mountain League Meet they placed fifth.

TUMBLING

The Lock Haven High School tumbling team has been under the able direction of Mr. Viechnicki for twelve years. The squad is composed of boys from both the Senior and Junior High Schools, and has put on a number of excellent exhibitions this year.

1942 Gazette

"IN THE SPRING . . ."



GIRLS' ATHLETICS

Girls' sports achieved new interest in 1942 due to the efforts of Miss Eleanor Leathers, girls' gym supervisor. A varied program provided activities for everyone's taste. In the fall tennis, archery, and softball kept the girls busy outdoors. Once inside attention was turned to mastering the fundamentals of basketball and finally to the game itself. After basketball season, emphasis was placed upon marching drills and group exercises in accordance with the "Hale America" program.

The newest addition to the athletic program for girls is the tumbling team, made up of girls from both Junior and Senior High Schools.

In the girls' basketball play-offs the "Invincibles," captained by Mary Gauntt, came out on top. The Tri-Hi-Y team, this year, journeyed to Renovo to play the Tri-Hi-Y of that city. A number of games were also played with girls' teams organized by the Y. M. C. A.

Miss Gresser—"This composition—what is it about?"

Pete Innocent—"About a General and his faithful horse galloping through the battle-field."

Miss Gresser—"But all it says here is "Gid-dy-yap" for ten pages."

Pete Innocent—"Can I help it if the horse won't move?"
